

Table of Contents

Client Intake

A. Client Intake – Plaintiff

1. Initial Contact
2. Who Should Conduct the Client Intake Interview and Where Should It Be Conducted?
3. Conflict Check
4. Gathering the Facts
 - a. The Basics about the Client
 - b. The Facts of the Accident
5. Liability
6. Injuries from the Accident
7. Medical Treatment from the Accident
8. Medical History
9. Claim History
10. Lost Wages
11. Insurance Information
12. Practice Tips
 - a. Automation
 - b. Trust Your Gut

B. Client Intake – Defense

1. Conflict Check
2. Initial Call with the Carrier
 - a. Discussing Stance and Strategy
3. Contacting the Actual Defendant-Driver

Client Intake Form

Case Preparation

A. Initial Investigation

1. Witnesses
2. FOIA Requests
3. The Responding Officer
4. Photographs
5. Visit the Accident Scene
6. Social Media
7. Medical Records: Pre-Suit

B. Formal Discovery

1. Interrogatories and Requests for Production
2. Depositions
 - a. Treating Physician
3. Requests for Admission

C. Trial Preparation

1. Theme of the Case
2. Opening Statements and Closing Arguments
3. Witness Examination
4. Exhibits

Appendices

- Summons and Complaint
- Summons and Complaint – Loss of Consortium Claim
- Plaintiffs' First Set of Interrogatories to Defendant
- Plaintiffs' First Set of Requests for Production to Defendant
- Answer (Jury Trial Demanded)
- Plaintiff's Requests for Admission to Defendant
- Defendant's First Set of Requests for Admission to Plaintiff

Elements of a Negligence Cause of Action

- A. Duty
- B. Breach of Duty
- C. Causation
- D. Damages
 - 1. Compensatory Damages
 - a. Medical Expenses
 - b. Property Damage
 - c. Emotional Damages
 - d. Loss of Consortium
 - 2. Punitive Damages

Evidence at Trial

- A. Is the Accident/Police Report Admissible?
 - 1. The Responding Officer
- B. Are the Medical Bills Admissible?
 - 1. Lay Witness
 - 2. Billing Clerk
 - 3. The Doctor
- C. Are the Medical Records Admissible?
 - 1. Doctor's Deposition and Testimony
 - 2. Expert Testimony
- D. Is Insurance Admissible?
 - 1. Automobile Insurance
 - 2. Health Insurance
- E. Are the Recorded Statements Admissible?
- F. Is the Traffic Ticket from the Accident Admissible?
- G. Are Photographs Admissible?.

Pre-Trial Motions

- A. What Is a Pre-Trial Motion?
- B. Types of Pre-Trial Motions
 - 1. Motions in Limine
 - 2. Motions to Exclude a Witness
- C. How to Have Your Motion Heard
- D. How Will the Outcome Be Determined?

Appendix

- Defendant's Motion in Limine and Motion to Exclude Expert Testimony

Jury Selection

- A. Qualification, Exemptions, and Transfers
- B. Voir Dire

Jury Instructions

- A. What Are Jury Instructions?
- B. Who Compiles Jury Instructions?
- C. When Does the Judge Read the Jury Instructions to the Jury?
- D. Standard Charges Always Made by Judge
- E. Plaintiff's Jury Charge Considerations
- F. Defendant's Jury Charge Considerations

Appendices

- Plaintiff's Requests to Charge
 - Damages – Elements of Actual Damages – Medical Bills/Expenses – Anderson, South Carolina Requests to Charge – Civil, Second Edition, 2002, § 13-5
 - Damages – Elements of Actual Damages – Pain and Suffering – Anderson, South Carolina Requests to Charge – Civil, Second Edition, 2002, § 13-8
 - Damages – Pre-Existing Condition – Anderson, South Carolina Requests to Charge – Civil, Second Edition, 2002, § 13-13
 - Damages – Automobile – Negligence Cause of Action – Anderson, South Carolina Requests to Charge – Civil, Second Edition, 2002, § 13-14

- Issue of Insurance – Not to Be Considered
- Defendant's Requests to Charge
 - Proximate Cause – Vinson v. Hartley; Crolley v. Hutchins; Woody v. South Carolina Power Co.
 - Proximate Cause – Black v. Hodge
 - Proximate Cause – Roscoe v. Grubb; Burr v. Coca Cola Co.; Gambrell v. Burleson
 - Damages – Actual – Sweeney v. Car/Puter Int'l Corp.
 - Damages – Compensatory – Haselden v. Davis; Hutchinson v. Town of Summerville; 22 Am.Jur.2d Damages §§ 26, 27; 11 S.C. Jurisprudence Damages §§ 2, 3 (1992)
 - Damages – Compensatory – 22 Am.Jur.2d Damages § 27; Haselden v. Davis
 - Expenses – Reasonable and Necessary – Sossaman v. Nationwide
 - Damages – Punitive – Anderson, South Carolina Requests to Charge – Civil, Second Edition, 2002, § 13-21
 - Verdict – Influenced by Facts Not in Evidence – S.C. Public Service Authority v. Spearwant Liquidating Co.

Post-Trial Motions

- A. New Trial Nisi Remittitur/Additur
- B. New Trial Absolute
- C. How and When to Make Post-Trial Motions