

South Carolina Limited Liability Companies

Fifth Edition

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1 Overview of the South Carolina Uniform Limited Liability Company Act of 1996

I.	South Carolina and a Few Other States Have the 1996 Uniform Act...	1
II.	Hallmark Is Flexibility	2
	A. Most Statutory Provisions May Be Changed	2
	B. What Parts of the Statute May Not Be Changed?	2
	C. The Statute and Official Comments	3
	D. South Carolina Act Takes Advantage of Tax Changes	5
	E. The South Carolina Statute Permits the LLC to Have a Guaranteed Existence.....	5
	F. Professional Services LLCs Are Treated the Same as Other LLCs	5
	G. Lawyers May Organize Their Practices as LLCs.....	5
	H. Non-Profit Organizations May Be Able to Use the LLC Form	6
	I. Tort and Contract Protection	6
III.	Forming the LLC	6
	A. Determining if the LLC (1) Should Be “At Will” or “For a Term,” and (2) Whether It Should Be Member- or Manager-Run	6
	B. Other Decisions Which Must Be Made in Organizing an LLC	8
	C. Statutory Agent and Service of Process	8
	D. Designated Office.....	11
	E. Name Requirements	11
	1. Qualifying Name	11
	2. Using the Name	11
	3. Reserving a Name.....	12
	4. Registering a Name (Foreign LLCs)	12
	F. Number of Members	12

Table of Contents

G. Contributions to the LLC by Members	13
H. What Does a LLC Member Own? How Do You Determine if Something Is LLC Property? What Is Required to Transfer LLC Property?.....	14
I. What Property Does the LLC Own?	16
J. How Does a Member Know His or Her Rights?.....	18
K. Out-of-State Owners and Organizers – Not Required to Qualify to Do Business.....	20
L. Amending the Articles.....	20
M. CL-1 Form Also Required.....	21
IV. The LLC for Most Purposes Is a Separate Entity	25
V. Statutory Rules as to When an LLC, a Member, or a Third Party Is Put on Notice	26
VI. Electronic Filings and Information	27
VII. Liability for a False Statement.....	28
VIII. Financial Structure of the LLC	28
A. Profit and Loss Sharing	28
B. Income Tax Provisions.....	29
C. Distributions and Salaries.....	31
1. Regular Distributions.....	31
2. Default Rule for Distributions	31
3. Limitations on Distributions.....	31
4. Controls on Post-Dissociation Distributions	31
5. Errors in Drafting Distribution Provisions	32
IX. Management of the LLC	33
A. Adopt a WRITTEN Operating Agreement.....	33
B. Total Flexibility.....	34
C. Selection of Managers.....	34
D. Default Rules.....	35
E. Agency (including Agency Advantage of Manager-Run Format).....	37
1. General Agency Authority.....	37
2. Agency Advantage of Manager-Run Format	38
F. In a Member-Run LLC, the Members Have Established a Management Committee.....	38

G. Any Member or Manager May Transfer Real Property	39
H. Indemnification	40
I. “Foreign” Manager May Not Need to Qualify to Do Business.....	43
J. Drafting Suggestions	43
X. Fiduciary Duties	44
A. Fiduciary Duties While a Member or Manager.....	44
B. Modifying the Fiduciary Duties in the Operating Agreement.....	45
C. The Statute Governing Fiduciary Duties.....	46
D. “Good Faith and Fair Dealing” – What Do These Terms Really Mean.....	48
E. Fiduciary Duties After a Member Dissociates (Withdraws from the LLC).....	52
F. Drafting Considerations – How to Cover Fiduciary Duties	53
XI. Records	54
A. No Required Records	54
B. Information Furnished Without Demand	54
C. Right to Operating Agreement	54
D. Statutory Requirements	54
XII. Annual Report	55
XIII. In South Carolina, the Term “Partnership” Now Also Includes/Mean “LLC”	55
XIV. Who Should Third Persons Deal With When Dealing With an LLC? Creditors Duties	56
A. Example #1	56
1. Are the Antiques Owned by the LLC? How Do You Determine?	56
2. Is this Member- or Manager-Run?	56
3. Assume that the LLC Is Managed by Managers, Does Mrs. Member Have Authority to Make the Sale?.....	56
4. Assume the LLC Is Run by the Members, Does Mrs. Member Have Authority to Sell?.....	57
5. Unusual Limits on Authority.....	59
XV. Contrary to Popular Belief, Members and Managers Do NOT Have Total Limited Liability	61
XVI. Resolving Disputes Among the LLC Members	61
A. Direct Suits by Members – Are They Permitted?	62

Table of Contents

B. If Defendant Asserts a Derivative Suit Is Required, What Test Will Be Applied?	63
C. Using § 7.01 of the A.L.I. Principles of Corporate Governance to Avoid the Derivative Suit.....	64
D. Accounting Actions	65
E. Whose Law Applies?.....	67
F. Derivative Procedures	69
G. Member or Manager May Be Entitled to Bring Both a Direct Individual Claim and a Simultaneous Derivative Claim on Behalf of His LLC Based on Essentially the Same Wrongful Behavior	78
H. For Diversity Purposes, an LLC Is a Citizen of Each State of Each Member.....	80
XVII. Transfer and Substitution of Memberships	81
A. Assignment of Financial Rights	81
B. Substitution of Members	82
1. Substitution Permitted	82
2. Draft Around Payment at Substitution	82
3. Who May Substitute Another	82
4. Statutory Guidelines	83
C. Invalid Transfers of All or a Portion of a Member’s Rights, Some Common Problems.....	84
XVIII. Creditors of Members – The Charging Order	84
A. Overview of the Charging Order.....	84
B. Oppressive Uses of the Charging Order	86
C. Possible Serious Defects of the Charging Order as the Creditor’s Key Remedy.....	89
D. Alternatives to the Charging Order	91
XIX. Member Dissociation	93
A. What Event Creates a Member Dissociation?	93
B. Eliminating a Member’s Power and Right to Dissociate	94
C. WARNING: Eliminating a Member’s Power to Voluntarily Withdraw	95
D. Wrongful and Rightful Dissociation	96
E. When May a Member Be Expelled?	98

XX.	What Happens if a Member Dissociates?	98
A.	If the LLC Is an “At-Will” LLC, the LLC Must Immediately Buy Out the Dissociated Member’s Interest	99
1.	The Buy Out	99
2.	The Price.....	99
B.	If the LLC Is a “Term” LLC, there Is a “Deferred” Buy Out of the Dissociated Member’s Interest.....	100
C.	Eliminating a Member’s Power to Bind the LLC After the Member Dissociates	101
D.	Disassociation May Protect a Former Member from Claims Brought By Members or the LLC	101
XXI.	When Must the LLC Dissolve?	103
A.	What Events Lead to a Dissolution?	103
B.	Partly Modifiable.....	103
C.	What Happens at Dissolution?	103
D.	Articles of Termination	104
E.	Administrative Dissolutions	104
F.	Statutory Provisions Governing Dissolution	105
G.	Under What Circumstances Will a Court Determine that the LLC Should Be Dissolved Since “It Is Not Otherwise Reasonably Practical to Carry on the LLC’s Business” in Conformity With the Operating Agreement?	106
H.	Should the LLC Be Dissolved if the “Reasonable Expectations” of the Members Have Not Been Met?	106
I.	Should an Unhappy Member Be “Bought Out” Rather than Dissolving the LLC?.....	107
J.	Can the Members Waive Their Right to Bring an Action to Dissolve the LLC.....	107
XXII.	Suggestions for Dealing With the Dissociation and Dissolution Provisions	108
A.	Modifiable	108
B.	Highly Recommended Modification – Delete Transferee’s Right to Seek Dissolution.....	108
C.	Standard Business Deals	109
D.	Family Estate Planning LLCs.....	109
E.	Professional LLCs.....	109

Table of Contents

XXIII. Peculiar Provisions Related to Dissociation and Dissolution.....109

 A. A Member Can Still Bind the LLC Two Years After She Quits – unless the LLC Files a Statement of Dissociation..... 109

 B. Fiduciary Duties Change at Dissociation 112

XXIV. Conversions and Mergers.....112

XXV. Foreign LLCs Doing Business in South Carolina113

Appendix.....115

Chapter 2
Choice of Entity

I. Types of Entities.....125

II. Advantages of an LLC Over an S Corporation125

 A. Generally 125

 B. Contributions of Property 126

 C. Allocations of Income and Losses..... 127

 D. Amount of Loss Deduction 127

 E. Distributions 128

III. Advantages of an LLC Over a General Partnership.....128

IV. Advantages of an LLC Over a Limited Partnership128

V. Advantages of an LLC Over an LLP129

VI. Disadvantages of an LLC130

 A. Increasing Attractiveness of C Corporations..... 130

 B. Use of S Corporation to Avoid Employment Taxes and the 3.8% Obamacare Tax..... 131

 C. Section 199A 131

 D. Application of Passive Loss Rules 132

 E. Qualified Small Business Stock 132

 F. Section 1244 Loss Treatment 133

 G. Method of Accounting..... 134

 H. Partnership Representative 134

 I. Employment Taxes..... 134

VII. Comparison Chart136

Chapter 3
Securities

I.	Regulatory Framework	139
II.	LLP and LLC Interests as “Securities”	141
	A. Federal Law	141
	B. South Carolina Law	144
III.	Registration of Securities	145
IV.	Exemption from Registration	146
	A. Federal Exemption for Issuers	147
	1. Private Offerings	147
	2. Intrastate Offerings	151
	3. Regulation Crowdfunding	152
	4. Regulation A	154
	5. Rule 701	155
	6. Exchanges of Securities	156
	B. South Carolina Exemption for Issuers	156
	1. Limited Offerings	157
	2. South Carolina Intrastate Exemption	158
	3. Offers to Accredited Investors	158
	4. Approved Exchange Transactions	159
	5. Sales to Institutional Investors	159
	6. Corporate Transactions	159
	7. Employee Compensation	159
	8. Stock Dividends	159
	C. Exemptions for Resales of Securities	159
	1. Federal Exemption	160
	2. South Carolina Exemptions	161
V.	Disclosure Obligations – “Antifraud”	162
VI.	Broker-Dealers and Agents	163
VII.	Conclusion	164

Table of Contents

Chapter 4
Determining a Member’s Distributive Share of the Limited Liability Company’s Income, Gain, Loss, Deduction or Credit under Section 704 of the Internal Revenue Code

I.	Generally	167
II.	Allocations	167
III.	Substantial Economic Effect	169
IV.	Obligation to Restore Deficit	170
V.	Substantially	171
VI.	Allocations Attributable to Nonrecourse Liabilities	172
VII.	Contributed Property – Section 704(c) of the Internal Revenue Code	172

Chapter 5
Using the LLC and LLP for Professional and Service Organizations

I.	Overview	175
	A. Reason for Creation.....	175
	B. Use by Professionals	175
	1. Limited Liability Company	175
	2. Limited Liability Partnership.....	175
	3. Other Entities.....	176
II.	Comparison of Entities	176
	A. Liability Protection.....	176
	1. Sole Proprietorships.....	176
	2. General Partnership	177
	3. Limited Liability Company	177
	4. Limited Liability Partnership.....	177
	5. Professional Association.....	177
	B. Taxation.....	178
	1. Limited Liability Company	178
	2. Limited Liability Partnership.....	178
	3. Professional Association.....	178

4. General Partnerships.....	179
C. Compensation.....	179
1. Partners.....	179
2. Employees.....	179
D. Formalities.....	180
1. Need to Observe Formalities.....	180
2. Failure to Observe Formalities.....	180
E. Fringe Benefits.....	181
1. Health Insurance, Medical Reimbursement Plan, Cafeteria Plan.....	181
2. Disability Income Plans.....	181
3. Group Term Life Insurance.....	182
4. Miscellaneous.....	182
F. Qualified Retirement Plans (401(k), Pension, Profit-Sharing).....	182
III. Legal Profession.....	183
A. Rise in Malpractice Claims.....	183
B. State Supreme Courts Will Decide the Extent of Lawyers’ Liability Protection.....	183
C. Limitation of Attorney Malpractice Liability.....	184
D. Decisions Adverse to Lawyers Attempting to Limit Liability.....	185
E. No Position in South Carolina.....	187
F. Public Policy and the Concerns With Limiting Liability for Lawyers.....	188
1. Client’s Reliance and Expectations.....	188
2. Supervisory Responsibility.....	188
3. Extension of Fiduciary Duty.....	189
4. Attorney Control of the Firm.....	189
G. Other Theories of Vicarious Liability.....	190
1. Generally.....	190
2. Legal Malpractice.....	190
3. Piercing the Organizational Veil.....	190
4. Conspiracy Theory and RICO.....	191
5. Disregarded Entity Theory.....	191

Table of Contents

H. The Argument for Allowing the User of Limited Liability Entities by Attorneys 191

IV. Multi-State Operations.....192

A. Lack of Uniformity..... 192

B. Treatment of South Carolina LLPs and LLCs by Other States 192

V. Miscellaneous.....193

A. Conversion 193

1. From General Partnership..... 193

2. From Professional Association..... 194

3. Pre-Existing Liabilities and Claims 194

B. Operation..... 194

C. Name 195

D. Minimum Insurance Requirements for LLPs 195

VI. Conclusion196

Chapter 6
Operational Issues Affecting LLCs and LLPs

I. Introduction.....197

II. Applicable Non-Tax Federal Rules197

A. Generally 197

B. Age Discrimination in Employment Act (“ADEA”)..... 197

C. Department of Housing and Urban Development (“HUD”) 198

D. Hart-Scott-Rodino 198

III. Retirement Payments.....198

A. Prior Law..... 198

B. RRA '93 198

C. Unclear Result 199

IV. Self-Employment Taxes.....199

A. Generally 199

B. S Corporations..... 200

C. LLCs..... 200

V. Bankruptcy201

VI.	Taxable Fringe Benefits	202
	A. LLC	202
	B. Partnerships	203
VII.	Self-Insurance	204
	A. Overview	204
	B. Unclear Result	204
VIII.	Common Paymaster	205
	A. Generally	205
	B. Corporation.....	205
	C. LLC	206
IX.	Deferred Compensation	206
	A. Overview	206
	B. Distributive Share of Income	206
	C. Guaranteed Payment.....	206
X.	Qualified Retirement Plans	207
	A. Generally	207
	B. Rules Applicable to an LLC Retirement Plan	207
XI.	Nonrecourse Debt	207
	A. Partnership Rules Apply.....	207
	B. Nonrecourse Liabilities	207
	C. Nonrecourse Debt Allocations	207
XII.	At-Risk Rules	208
	A. Generally	208
	B. Member Guarantees	209
XII.	Passive Loss Rules	210
	A. Generally	210
	B. Passive vs. Active.....	210
	1. Limited Partners	210
	2. Others	210
	C. Application to LLC Members	211
	D. Active Participation in Real Estate Rental Activities.....	211
XIV.	Tax Matters Partner – Partnership Representative	212

Table of Contents

XV. Cancellation of Indebtedness Income.....213

XVI. Method of Accounting213

 A. General Rule..... 213

 B. Exception..... 213

 C. Tax Shelter 213

 D. Syndicate Tax Shelter..... 214

 E. Defined Tax Shelter..... 214

XVII. Piercing the Veil215

XVIII. Creditor’s of LLC Members216

XIX. Real Property: Assessable Transfers and the Legal Residence Ratio.....216

 A. Assessable Transfers 216

 B. Legal Residence Ratio..... 217

XX. Conclusion218

Chapter 7
State Taxation of LLCs

I. South Carolina Income Taxes.....219

II. Definitions for South Carolina Taxation219

III. A Couple of Issues Related to Single-Member LLCs Which Are Disregarded as an Entity Separate from Their Owners220

 A. Nexus..... 220

 B. A Member’s Liability for a Single-Member LLC’s Taxes..... 220

IV. Other South Carolina Taxes221

 A. Corporate License Fees 221

 B. Agricultural Use Property Tax Valuation..... 222

 C. Recording Fees..... 222

 1. Imposition and Determination of Value 222

 2. Liability 223

 3. Exemptions 223

 4. Affidavit of Value..... 224

 D. Withholding on South Carolina Income of Nonresident
Partners and S Corporation Shareholders..... 224

V.	Conversions of One Type of Entity to Another Involving LLCs.....	225
A.	Tax Consequences of the Conversion of a Partnership to a Limited Liability Company. See S.C. Revenue Ruling #95-9.....	225
1.	Definitions and Assumptions.....	225
2.	Income Tax.....	225
3.	Sales Tax	226
4.	Recording Fees	227
B.	The South Carolina Income Tax Consequences of Certain Other Conversions.....	227
1.	Tax Consequences of the Conversion of a Corporation to a Limited Liability Company	227
2.	The Sale of Interests in an LLC Taxed as a Partnership Where a Single-Member LLC Results	228
3.	A Single-Member LLC Which Is Disregarded as an Entity Separate from Its Owner Becomes an LLC With More than One Owner Taxed as a Partnership	229
VI.	Property Taxes	229
A.	South Carolina Real Property Valuation Reform Act	229
B.	Principal Residence	230

Chapter 8
Using LLCs for Estate Planning

I.	Transfer Taxes Generally.....	231
A.	Three Transfer Taxes	231
B.	Gift and Estate Taxes	231
1.	Marital Deduction.....	231
2.	Unified Credit.....	231
3.	Annual Exclusion	232
C.	Generation-Skipping Transfer Tax.....	232
II.	Gifts	232
A.	Use of Annual Exclusion to Make Gifts.....	232
B.	Use of Unified Credit to Make Gifts.....	233
1.	Shifting Appreciation	233
2.	Example.....	233

Table of Contents

III. Family Partnerships.....233

- A. Overview 233
- B. Tax Benefits 233
 - 1. Discounted Value 233
 - 2. Increased Gifts..... 234
 - 3. Example..... 234
- C. Non-Tax Advantages..... 234
- D. Formation of FLP 234
 - 1. General Partner Control and Liability 235
 - 2. Limited Partner Lack of Control or Liability 235
- E. Formation of FLLC 235
 - 1. Manager Control..... 235
 - 2. Liability 235
 - 3. Lack of Member Control 235
- F. Making Gifts of Family Partnership Interests 235
 - 1. FLP 236
 - 2. FLLC 236

IV. FLP vs. FLLC236

- A. FLLC Advantages 236
- B. FLP Advantage..... 237
 - 1. Discounts 237
 - 2. Section 2704(b) and “Applicable Restrictions” 237
 - 3. FLP Is Safer..... 238
- C. Conclusion..... 238

Chapter 9
Single Member LLCs

I. Statutory Authority239

- A. Federal (Tax) 239
- B. State..... 239
 - 1. South Carolina Uniform Limited Liability Company Act of 1996..... 239
 - 2. South Carolina Department of Revenue..... 239

II.	Application.....	240
A.	Limited Liability Company Parent-Sub	240
B.	S Corporation – Limited Liability Company Division.....	241
C.	C Corporations	241
D.	Bankruptcy Remote Entities.....	241
E.	Like-Kind Exchange.....	241
F.	General Partner of a Limited Partnership.....	241
G.	Principal Residence	241
III.	Operational Issues.....	242
A.	Operating Agreement	242
B.	Admission of a Second Member	242
C.	Sale of a Membership Interest in a Two-Member Limited Liability Company	246
D.	Sale of Membership Interests to a Third Party.....	249
E.	Transfers of Real Estate	251
1.	Deed Recording Fees.....	251
2.	Agricultural Use Exemption.....	251
3.	Assessable Transfer	251
F.	Employer Identification Number (EIN)	252
G.	Charitable Contributions	252

Chapter 10
Limited Liability Company
Mergers and Conversions

I.	Merger	253
A.	A Limited Liability Company May Merge, Pursuant to the Terms of a “Plan of Merger”, With or Into	253
B.	Plan of Merger.....	253
1.	Approvals	253
2.	Contents of Plan of Merger	254
3.	Effective Date of Merger.....	254
4.	Real Estate	254
5.	Effect of the Merger: S.C. Code Ann. § 33-44-906.....	255

Table of Contents

II. Conversions	256
A. Conversion of a Corporation to a Limited Liability Company: S.C. Code Ann. § 33-11-111	256
1. Mechanics of Conversion	256
B. Conversion of a Limited Liability Company to a Corporation: S.C. Code Ann. § 33-44-908	258
1. Mechanics of Conversion	258
2. Effective Date	259
3. Member Liability	259
4. Effect of Conversion	259
5. Real Estate Filings	259
C. Conversion by a Limited Liability Company to a Limited Partnership: S.C. Code Ann. § 33-44-910	260
1. Mechanics of Conversion	260
D. Conversion by a Limited Liability Company to a General Partnership: S.C. Code Ann. § 33-44-912	262
1. Mechanics of Conversion	262
2. Effective Date	262
3. Effect of Conversion	263
4. Real Estate Filing	263
III. Federal Income Tax Treatment of Mergers and Conversions	265
A. Conversion of a Partnership Into a Limited Liability Company	265
1. Deemed Form of the Transaction	265
2. Tax Effect of the Conversion	265
B. Limited Liability Company Merges With Another Limited Liability Company	266
1. Deemed Form of the Transaction	267
2. Who Is the Surviving Limited Liability Company?	267
3. Deemed Transfer of Assets to Surviving Limited Liability Company and Assumption of Liabilities	267
4. Basis	267
5. Holding Period	268
6. Tax Year	268
7. Employer Identification Number (EIN)	268

C. Limited Liability Company Converts to a Corporation	269
1. Pursuant to a State Law Conversion Statute (See generally , Rev. Rul. 2004-59, 2004-24 IRC § 1050).....	269
2. Conversion Outside of State Law Conversion Statute (See generally , Rev. Rule 84-111, 1984-2 C.B. 88).....	271
3. Exchange of Limited Liability Company Assets and Liabilities for Stock	274
4. Limited Liability Company Liquidates – Members Contribute Assets to Corporation	275
5. Transfer of Limited Liability Company Membership Interests to New Corporation in Exchange for Stock	275
D. Corporation Converts/Merges into a Limited Liability Company	276

Chapter 10(A)
Personal Liability of LLC Managers and Members

I. Members and Managers Have Personal Liability for LLC Actions	279
II. Member or Manager Often Becomes Personally Liable When He or She Commits a Wrongful Act Against Either Another Member (or Manager) or Against the LLC as an Entity	281
III. When Will an LLC Member Be Liable for His Own Wrongful Acts Against Third Parties? ANSWER: ALMOST ALWAYS!.....	287
IV. Piercing the Veil of the LLC	300
A. South Carolina LLC Piercing Principles	300
B. Whose “Piercing” Law Governs: the Law Where the LLC Is Formed or the Law Where the Tort or Event Occurred?.....	306
C. When and How Can the Piercing Claim Be Brought? When Must It Be Brought?	308
D. May an LLC Member Bring a Piercing Claim Against Another Member?	310
V. Reverse Piercing	310
VI. LLC Members Liable for Aiding and Abetting the Wrongful Act of Their LLC	312
VII. “Single-Business Enterprise Theory”	313
VIII. LLC Member Liable if She Receives a Wrongful Distribution	315
IX. Acting on Behalf of an LLC Before It Is Formed	318

Table of Contents

X. In South Carolina, the LLC, as an Equity, Is NOT Liable for Torts Committed by the LLC’s Promoters Prior to the LLC Formation321

XI. Is a South Carolina LLC Member Personally Liable to Pay a Capital Call?322

XII. South Carolina LLC Members Not Required to Make Contributions or Pay Note324

XIII. State or Federal Statute Imposes Personal Liability Upon a Member, Manager, or Other Agent Acting for the LLC325

 A. South Carolina Payment of Wages Statute..... 326

 B. Federal Law May Impose Personal Liability on Member or Manager..... 330

 1. Failure to Pay Taxes 330

 2. Federal (and State) Securities Laws 330

 C. Other Federal Statutes that May Have Been Violated by LLC Members in South Carolina 332

XIV. State Statute or Common Law May Impose Liability on Member – But Which State’s Law Should Apply?333

 A. Unique Statutory Language Determined Whose Law Should Apply..... 334

 B. The North Carolina Approach..... 334

 C. Whose Law Determines Whether a Dissolved LLC Can Be Sued?..... 338

XV. LLC Member or Manager Will Be Personally Liable if She Contracts in Her Own Name, or if She Otherwise Fails to Disclose She Is Acting on Behalf of Her LLC339

XVI. Member or Manager Liable for “Post-Dissolution” Claims.....342

Sample Agreements and Appendices347

Sample Agreements

Chapter 11: Manager-Managed Operating Agreements

Multi-Member Agreements

Term [1 Class of Membership Interest]

Term [1 Class of Membership Interest]

Term [2 Classes of Membership Interests]

At Will

Single-Member Agreements

Term

Term

Chapter 12: Member-Managed Operating Agreements

Multi-Member Agreements

Term

Term

At Will

Single-Member Agreements

Term

At Will

Chapter 13: S-Corporation LLC Operating Agreements

Multi-Member Agreements

Manager-Managed Term or At Will

Manager-Managed Term

Single-Member Agreements

Manager-Managed Term

Chapter 14: Agreement of Conversion

Appendices

Appendix A: LLC Official Forms

Appendix B: LLP Official Forms

Appendix C: 26 CFR 301.7701

Table of Contents
